Financial Support and Payment Options

Concessionary Fees

If you are studying an accredited course at Entry Level, Level 1 or Level 2 you may be eligible for a concessionary fee. If you fall into one of the following categories you will need to complete a self-declaration funding form and provide evidence of your means tested benefit. All evidence must be dated within three months of the course start date.

Claiming Job Seekers Allowance/Employment Support Allowance or Universal Credit.

- Receiving Universal Credit (UC) and your take home pay as recorded on your UC statement (disregarding UC payments and other benefits) is less than £617 per month (learner is sole adult in the benefit claim) or £988 per month (learner has a joint benefit claim with their partner).
- Earning less than £20,319 annual gross salary. You must provide evidence of your salary.

Go to www.varndean.ac.uk/adulted for terms and conditions, instalment payment plans and refund details. Fees and concessionary rates are correct at the time of publication and are subject to change.

Courses for Job Seekers

We want to support our local community back to work. If you are unemployed or on a low income and are considering a career change, our Courses for Jobseekers offer a variety of industry-based qualifications and employability support. These short courses are designed to help you on your pathway to employment. We work closely with the Job Centre Plus to ensure we are meeting the needs of the local job market.
