Job Description

Job Title	French Language Assistant
Department:	School of English, Humanities and MFL
Grade:	SFCA Support Staff spine Band 3, point 7 - £23,585 pro rata per annum
Hours:	21 hrs per week, 39 weeks per year (term time only)
Contract:	Fixed term maternity cover - up to 26th March 2025
Reporting to:	Programme Lead, Modern Foreign Languages

Modern Foreign Languages in the School of English, Humanities and MFL

The teaching of MFL is designed to encourage students to develop an enthusiastic desire to communicate with others with accurate and imaginative use of the target language. This is achieved by providing stimulating opportunities for use of real language both in and outside of lessons. There is a strong focus on the use of target language and authentic cultural resources in all classes. MFL teaching enhances students' ability to understand cross-curricular links as well as developing their skills of independent learning, research and critical thinking.

The team offers French, Spanish and German at A level, The International Baccalaureate is also taught in French, Spanish and German at higher and standard levels and ab initio in French.

At present there are three language tutors in the area, supported by language assistants for French, German and Spanish. As a team we try to foster an enthusiasm for travelling and working abroad in order to develop language skills and broaden our students' cultural awareness and understanding. They are encouraged to participate in work experiences, exchanges and organised cross-curricular educational visits.

The area has three rooms devoted to languages. We have two small rooms for one-to-one or small group conversation classes and two offices.

We are conscious of the national reluctance to pursue the study of Modern Languages beyond 14, and try to promote languages to all our students, both before they enrol and after. We aim to create a stimulating and supportive learning environment and to be sympathetic to the fact that students often perceive language study as difficult, balance rigour with fun and help.

Purpose of Job:

As a native French speaker to support the teaching of the language to students to develop their oral fluency, confidence and cultural awareness, particularly in their preparation for the oral part of public examinations, both A Level and International Baccalaureate.

Main Duties & Responsibilities:

- To support the teaching of French at all levels by helping pupils to develop their oral fluency.
- To liaise with the French teacher regarding schemes of work and content for the conversation classes.
- To plan classes which will stimulate conversation in the target language and which will be closely linked to course content.
- To have a clear understanding of the requirements of each speaking examination, with appropriate guidance from the Head of Modern Languages.
- To organise a timetable for speaking classes for students of French (A level and IB) in April and then in September, so that students are seen either individually or in pairs outside of lessons.
- To help students to prepare for the speaking part of public examinations (A level and IB).
- To monitor attendance at oral classes, reporting absences to the Head of French and tutors.
- To feed into the reporting process by providing comments of pupils' progress, attitude and effort.
- To provide extra support for students who might be struggling in French as directed by the French teacher and / or the Head of Department.
- To support MFL staff by keeping up to date with current affairs and finding appropriate, stimulating materials for students.
- To collate and develop resources available for use in the classroom or on Google Classroom.
- To work with other language assistants to produce suitable displays for the MFL department.
- To be willing to accompany teachers on trips and excursions where appropriate.

General Responsibilities:

- To apply the College's own Safeguarding policy and practices;
- To adhere to the College's Equal Opportunities policy in all activities, and to actively promote equality of opportunity wherever possible;
- To be responsible for your own health and safety and that of your colleagues, in accordance with the Health and Safety at Work Act (1974) and relevant EC directives;
- To support the college in ensuring compliance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act;
